Trademark Update

On January 29, 2004, Brother Joseph Branham sent a letter to each person on Voice Of God Recordings' mailing list, stating that, on behalf of Voice Of God Recordings, he was withdrawing his application to register the trademark on his father's name.

This action was taken in obedience to the Holy Scriptures, which expressly forbids all those who follow Christ from pursuing or responding to another brother in a court of law. I Corinthians 6:7

Immediately after the letter was sent, the petitions were filed in both the US and Canada which would signal the start of the "abandonment to trademark" proceedings. It has been a lengthy process, but on March 5, 2004 the Canadian Intellectual Property Office granted Voice Of God Recordings the status of "voluntary abandonment."

On May 8, 2004 the United States Patent and Trademark Office declared that our application had officially been inactivated.

May God keep our spirits right and our hearts "...robed in His righteousness, filled with
